A collection of previously published books featuring Wisconsin farm girl Christy Miller as she learns about Christianity and life.

There You'll Find Me
by Jenny B. Jones

Finley Sinclair's creativity disappeared with the death of her older brother, Will. She decides to study abroad in Ireland so she can follow Will's travel journal. It's the place he felt closest to God, and she's hopeful being there will help her make peace over losing him. Once in Ireland, Finley starts to break down. The loss of her brother and the pressure of school, and whatever it is that is happening between her and Beckett, who she met on the plane to Ireland, leads her to a new and dangerous vice. When is God going to show up for her in this emerald paradise? Then she experiences something that radically changes her perspective on life. Could it be God convincing her that everything she's been looking for has been with her all along?"

Coaltown Jesus
by Ronald Koertge

Walker shouldn't have been so surprised to find Jesus standing in the middle of his bedroom. After all, he'd prayed for whoever was up there to help him, and to help his mom, who hadn't stopped crying since Noah died two months ago. But since when have prayers actually been answered? And since when has Jesus been so irreverent?

Small Town Sinners
by Melissa Walker

High school junior Lacey finds herself questioning the evangelical Christian values she has been raised with when a new boy arrives in her small town.

Glamour
by Melody Carlson

Sink or swim? Paige's engagement to designer Dylan Marceau shocks the fashion world. Although Paige appears to be happy, Erin wonders if it's true love or just a desire for attention and publicity. As Paige's love life takes off, Erin is feeling pressure from Blake to take their friendship to a romantic level. But is she ready? These two very different sisters still have one thing in common—their fashion TV show and all the drama that comes along with it. As they prepare for a trip to film in the Bahamas, the Forrester sisters discover that paradise isn't all it's cracked up to be. Can they do the right thing in tough situations—and the right thing for each another—in a business that often encourages the worst?

Blessings in Disguise
by ReShonda Tate Billingsley

Family problems tempt Alexis and Jasmine to do something drastic to get the attention they crave, but their friends in Good Girlz, an afterschool church youth group, have some hard-won advice for them.

Nothing But Drama
by ReShonda Tate Billingsley

Four teenage girls from different backgrounds find faith and friendship after joining Good Girlz, an afterschool church youth group.

Just Ask
by Melody Carlson

Grace Blakely believed that finding the truth about her mother's murder would finally give her peace, but now she knows that it is only the beginning of the secrets that will dominate her life--and make her a target on Embassy Row in Adria.

Down from the Mountain
by Elizabeth Fixmer

Fourteen year-old Eva tries to be a good disciple of Righteous Path, a polygamy cult in Colorado, but her forays into the 'heathen world' cause her to question all she knows.

All the Major Constellations
by Pratima Cranse

After Andrew's best friend is hit by a drunk driver and ends up in a coma, his enigmatic crush invites him to find comfort with her fundamentalist Christian group.

Roadside Assistance
by Amy Clipston

After her mother dies and she and her father move in with her wealthy aunt and cousin, Emily struggles when her car-loving, tomboy identity and her way of expressing her faith clash with the expectations of others.

Devoted
by Jennifer Mathieu

Rachel Walker is devoted to God and her large family, but as her curiosity about the world her parents turned from grows and she finds that neither Calvary Christian Church nor her homeschool education has the answer she craves, she considers leaving her sheltered life, as an older sister did.

God Got a Dog
by Cynthia Rylant

Cynthia Rylant and Marla Frazee imagine a God inspired to go out and experience human things.

The Merchant's Daughter
by Melanie Dickerson

In 1352 England, seventeen-year-old Annabel, granddaughter of a knight and a would-be nun, eludes a lecherous bailiff but falls in love with Lord Le Wyse, the ferocious and disfigured man to whom her family owes three years of indentured servitude, Annabel must decide whether to follow the plans she has cherished or the calling God has placed on her heart, in this tale loosely based on Beauty and the Beast.

Starring Me
by Krista McGee

Will seventeen-year-old Kara have to give up her acting dream when she learns that her audition for a television variety show starring a big-time teen celebrity hinges on her relationship with God?

Promise Kept
by Stephanie Perry Moore

Stressed out and frustrated from the pressure to win the college National Championship football game, and the demands of having a steady girl, Perry can't help wondering how he can put God first when so many forces seem to be working against him. Though deep down, Perry knows that his glory only lies with God on his side, he feels drawn to let his flesh lead. Can he get past his weaknesses, learn how to truly embrace God's love, and be an example that will make others want to know God. . . or will he screw up his life for good?

A Simple Song
by Melody Carlson

Katrina Yoder has the voice of an angel, but her Amish parents believe singing is prideful vanity, and when she wins a ticket to sing in Hollywood, her life is turned upside down.

Once Was Lost
by Sara Zarr

As a pastor's kid, it's hard not to buy into the idea of the perfect family, a loving God, and amazing grace. But lately, Sam has a lot of reasons to doubt. Her mother lands in rehab after a DUI, and her father seems more interested in his congregation than his family. When a young girl in her small town goes missing, the local tragedy overlaps with Sam's personal one, and the already worn thread of faith holding her together begins to unravel.
